MINERS ACCEPT GOVERNMENT'S TERMS

MEXICAN REPLY TO AMERICAN NOTE ON JENKINS CASE MAY BE RECEIVED TODAY

Understood at Washington That Missive is Now in Course Transmission

EXPECTED TO DODGE THE ISSUE AGAIN

Fall's Charges of Intrigue Said to Be Old Stuff in New Dress.

(International News Service.) WASHINGTON, Dec. 9.—The next development in the Mexican situation is expected today with the probable arrival of the Carranza reply to the last note of the state department.

The reply is understood to be in the course of transmission. It is believed here that the note will be another attempt at evasion, pointing out that Consular Agent Wm. O. Jenkins has already been released.

Publication today of the complete report made by Senator Fall to President Wilson on the Mexican situation was not expected to change materially the situation. The charges made by Senator Fall, that there had been collusion between officials of the Mexican government and radicals in the United States are understood to have been the subject of previous state department investigations. Senator Fall also quoted Carranza himself as giving directions which would look for strong Mexican forces on the Texas border and the report hits at an alliance between Mexico and Japan, but it is understood that all of these matters have had the attention of the state department.

Deputy Returns, Wrong Man Held

Deputy Sheriff George Creel returned last night from Tusculum, where a defendant, believed to be wanted here, was held. The man in custody was white, Deputy Creel stated, while the one sought by the Morgan county officials on a charge of violating the prohibition laws, was a negro.

SELECTION OF JURY STARTED BY COURT IN GILCHRIST CASE

Both Sides Answer "Ready" When Dan Gilchrist is Arraigned Before Judge Curtis of Jasper, Presiding

MOULTON, Ala., Dec. 9. (Special.)—Selection of a jury to try Dan Gilchrist, jointly indicted with his brother, Garth Gilchrist, on a charge of murder of E. L. Wann, will be started immediately after the court convenes this afternoon. Both sides announced ready this morning when the case was called by Judge Curtis of Jasper, presiding over the special terms of the Lawrence county court, called to hear the cases which have attracted the attention of all of North Alabama.

One hundred citizens of Lawrence county, summoned for jury service, answered to their names this morning and it is believed that the make-up of the jury will be known by mid-afternoon. Solicitor D. C. Almon, County Solicitor Chas. Sherrod and W. W. Callahan are here to conduct the prosecution, while attorneys Earle Smith, of Huntsville, A. H. Carmichael, of Tusculum, W. R. Mitchell, of Florence and G. O. Chennault, of Albany appeared for the defendant.

The defendants were brought into the court room shortly after ten o'clock. A large crowd poured into Moulton early this morning to witness the trial. The Gilchrists and Wann both were well known, being prominently connected with Courtland's social and commercial life.

Newberry Plans to Take Advantage of Technicality

(International News Service.) GRAND RAPIDS, Dec. 9.—Attorneys representing Senator Newberry and his co-defendants in the Michigan election fraud cases are today preparing to institute legal attacks upon the indictment.

The Senator and 24 of his co-defendants were arraigned late Monday and stood mute while the court ordered pleas of "not guilty" entered for them. Counsel for the defense claimed that for the defendants to have entered pleas would have precluded the raising of legal questions as to the validity of the indictments. The cases were set for hearing on January 27 before Judge Sessions here.

Routine Matters Before Cabinet

(International News Service.) WASHINGTON, Dec. 9.—The cabinet today discussed only routine matters, according to Sec. Lansing and Sec. Lane. The coal situation was not discussed on account of the situation in Indianapolis, and Sec. Lansing said there was nothing new in the Mexican situation.

Then he hustled back to his car and resumed his duties as a public traction servant.

(International News Service.) WASHINGTON, Dec. 9.—President Wilson will send a special message to congress on the railroad situation within a few days, it was announced today.

The report includes recommendations as to the action to be taken by the President in returning the roads to their private owners. The report was drawn after a conference between Mr. Hines, Senator Cummins and Representative Esch, in charge of railroad legislation. There was no indication as to whether the director general had recommended a delay in the return of the roads.

GERMANY WARNED FOR "LAST TIME" MUST KEEP FAITH

(International News Service.) WASHINGTON, Dec. 9.—Sharp language is used by the supreme council in Paris in the two notes of December 8 addressed to the German peace delegation, the contents of which were made public by the state department here today.

"We remind Germany," the last time," the first note concludes, "that until the peace treaty comes into force a renunciation of the armistice is sufficient to give the allied armies full latitude for any military measures they may deem necessary. We therefore expect without delay the signature of the protocol and the deposit of ratifications."

The second note dealt with the sinking of the German fleet at Scapa Flow and declares that "the German government cannot repudiate today the responsibility upon it or seek through arbitration the solution for acts of war, the settlement of which belongs to the allied and associated powers."

This note further declares that allied and associated powers can only see in the German memorandum concerning destruction of the German fleet an attempt difficult to explain, voluntarily to delay the coming into force of the treaty and the definite reestablishment of peace.

APPEAL IS MADE FOR LIQUOR MEN

(International News Service.) WASHINGTON, Dec. 9.—An appeal was made to the house agricultural committee for a repeal of the wartime prohibition law by Representative Rainey of Illinois, and Representative Gallivan, of Massachusetts. The committee took no action. The congressmen asserted that unless the war was repealed the government would lose about $500,000,000 in revenue receipts, several millions from excess profits taxes, while the liquor and beer interests would lose more than $1,000,000,000 in the depreciation of property.

CHRISTMAS DIVORCE RUSH UNDER WAY IN CHICAGO

(International News Service.) CHICAGO, Dec. 9.—The Christmas rush for divorces is on in Chicago. Court attaches can't explain this Christmas divorce rush, but say that the number of divorce applications invariably increases around the Yuletide holidays.

Close to 100 divorces were issued in one day by Judge McDonald and court attaches say, indications are that the demand this year will be heavier than usual.

TEXAS GEOLOGIST IS IMPRESSED WITH COUNTY'S OIL PROSPECTS

Became Interested in Section Through an Article Published in the Daily.

Possibility of the early development of the oil and gas fields of Morgan county loomed nearer today when it became known that N. R. Stegall, a geologist of Cleburne, Texas, had been here for an inspection and is now on his way back to the Lone Star State to interest capital. If he is successful, Mr. Stegall will return here and begin the boring of test wells.

How Mr. Stegall became interested in the local oil field was revealed today by F. R. Orr, who stated that an article appearing in the Daily some months ago had been brought to Mr. Stegall's attention. The article in question told of some tools being blown from a well that was being drilled, when gas was struck.

Mr. Stegall, like many other geologists who have been here, was of the opinion that Morgan county was rich in both oil and natural gas.

A. MITCHELL PALMER APPEARED IN COURT

Attorney General Personally Made Request for Delay. Miners Consented.

(International News Service.) WASHINGTON, Dec. 9.—Attorney General Palmer telegraphed the White House that the miners have agreed to the President's plan.

(International News Service.) INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 9.—President Wilson's proposal as a basis for settlement of the coal strike called for a wage increase of 14 per cent, Attorney General Palmer announced this afternoon. The miners agreed to the President's terms 30 minutes after they were presented.

(International News Service.) INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 9.—The decks were cleared at 10 o'clock today for a settlement of the coal strike this afternoon. At 10 o'clock United States attorneys, headed by Attorney General A. Mitchell Palmer, appeared before Judge Anderson here and asked that both the contempt proceedings and the investigation of the war time activities of both operators and miners be continued until next week. Attorneys representing the miner's union concurred in the government's request for the continuance of the cases, thereby removing another obstacle in the way of the settlement of the strike.

The hearing of contempt proceedings against 84 officials of the United Mine Workers of America, was set for Dec. 16 at 10 a. m. The federal grand jury investigation of alleged profiteering by the coal operators and of conspiracy to restrict the production of coal by both operators and miners during the war was set for Dec. 17 at 10 a. m.

There were no indications that contempt charges against the miner's officials will be dropped when the case is called next Tuesday. At the same time there were no indications that the charges would be pressed. Government attorneys refused to state what action they would take should the coal miner's officials accept the government's terms for a settlement of the strike at the conference at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The government terms are to be announced at 2:30 o'clock.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 9.—Pennsylvania coal operators gathering here today for a conference declared they had heard from Washington that the coal strike is to be settled on the basis of a 20 per cent increase in wages to the miners. The settlement was reported to be based on a 2-year agreement.

GRAND JURY POSTPONED INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 9.—At the request of Attorney General A. Mitchell Palmer the grand jury investigation of the activities of the coal operators and miners during the war was postponed until Dec. 17. Attorney General Palmer, appearing personally before Federal Judge Anderson, asked that the investigation be postponed until that date, explaining that "in view of the recent developments in the coal situation" this continuance was asked.

Sky Pilot Says John Barleycorn Causes Accidents

(International News Service.) NEW YORK, Dec. 9.—The statement of Lieut. Maynard, the "flying Parson" that many fatal accidents are caused by the pilots flying under the influence of liquor, aroused a storm of protest in flying circles here today.

Maynard's statement was given wide circulation by the Anti-Saloon League of America.

G. Douglass Waldrop, editor of the Aerial Age, an officer of the Aero club of America, characterized the statement as "pure rot and an insult to the hundreds who made the supreme sacrifice in the air service during the war."

E. C. Payne, who put Morgan county "over the top" in the last Armenian Fund campaign, has again assumed the responsibility for this work here. "There are 800,000 of the people, I am told," said Mr. Payne, "who are literally starving to death, among them more than 100,000 orphans. I feel confident the people of this county will again respond generously to this humanitarian cause. W. R. Shelton will assist me in the campaign. Campaign plans will be announced by Mr. Payne within a few days.

Get Morgan County
Out of the Mud*VOTE FOR THE GOOD ROADS BOND ISSUE*SENATOR FALL IS BAFFLED BY PRESIDENT

Senator Fall, of New Mexico, who delights to be known as the "implacable political foe of the administration," has been somewhat out-general in his effort to force the United States into war. His hand was called in the first instance when the senate sought to embarrass the president by suggesting that the Mexican negotiations had not been called to his attention, and when his sick-room delegation was received by Mr. Wilson instead of being turned away. But it was in advising Mr. Fall as to the exact status of the senate that the executive dealt his deadliest blow.

President Wilson wrote:

I am confident that I am supported by every competent constitutional authority in the statement that the initiative in directing the relations of our government is assigned by the constitution to the executive, and to the executive only. Only one of the two houses of Congress is associated with the President by the constitution in an advisory capacity, and the advice of the Senate is provided for only when sought by the executive, in regard to explicit agreements with foreign governments and with the appointment of the foreign representatives, who are to speak for this government at foreign capitals. The only safe course, I am confident, is to adhere to the prescribed method of the constitution. We might go very far afield if we departed from it.

"I am very much obliged to you for having given me the opportunity to express this opinion. Or in other words, Fall and his republican cohorts were told just where they could detain. They were admonished, after the fashion of little children, that they were mere buttresses, and that when needed they would be sent for. It is to be hoped that thus chided, these pestiferous politicians will withdraw to a comfortable seat to the rear. Mr. Wilson, though ill, is a much cleverer man than any senator who sits on the republican side.

ANARCHISTS IN THE MAKING

From the Brooklyn Eagle.

Emma Goldman and Alexander Berkman are on their way to Russia, having got as far as Ellis Island. It is good riddance to bad rubbish. Berkman's anarchistic teaching and record have been emphasized by the recent death of H. C. Frick, whom he tried to murder. Miss Goldman's needs no emphasis, but the character of the woman is indicated by her attempt to avoid deportation on the ground that she is legally the wife of an American citizen, whom she left years ago and who is dragged out of a well earned obscurity by this claim. The officials at Washington have passed upon it and insist that it has no legal validity. Berkman tried to stay here by renouncing the anarchy which he has preached for years.

The reason that these revolutionists wish to stay in this country instead of returning to Russia, which has the kind of government that they say they believe in, was brought out by some inquiries made by Representative Siegel of the committee on immigration. At Ellis Island he ran across Thomas Bulokanob, a 17-year-old anarchist from Greenpoint, who is awaiting deportation for organizing revolution here. The boy came to this country in 1912. When Hillquit was running for mayor he was 15 and went to the Hillquit meetings. He became interested in socialism, went to a public library and read Berkman's "Prison Memoirs of an Anarchist," Bakunin's "God and the State" and the works of other Russian revolutionists. Then he got some kind of a job with Emma Goldman's revolutionist paper, Mother Earth, and presently he was the leader of a group of young revolutionists to whom he spoke both in Russian and English. Some of the time he had 300 or 400 people at his lectures. He boasts that he does not believe in any form of government or in God, but he is willing to go to Russia, whose government most nearly approaches his ideal of anarchy.

That Bohokanob is not an exceptional instance of the way we are training up revolutionists is shown at the public library, where a reporter for the Herald found that revolutionary books such as this boy read were in much demand, the cards for them being well thumbed and the attendants trying to keep the volumes out of the hands of youths who cannot yet speak English. That condition rather than the greater material comfort in this country is the thing for which Berkman and Miss Goldman want to stay here. They have a following here through whom they can spread the revolutionary doctrines to which they have devoted the best part of their lives, can make converts and achieve distinction as leaders.

In Russia their doctrine has become so much of a commonplace that there is little use or distinction for leaders. But the growing crop of young revolutionists here is an excellent reason for sending away these leaders and others like them and for stopping the distribution of revolutionary literature among them.

Alabama will approve the good roads bond issue. The state is not too poor to do it; but is too poor not to do it.

Voice of the People

Albany-Decatur Daily,
Albany, Ala.

Dear Sir:

I have been officially advised by the Director of the Census that the compensation for enumerators has been increased to the maximum of four cents per name and thirty cents for each farm.

This applies to all of the population except those persons confined in institutions such as jails, almshouses, etc., in which case the rate will be three cents per name.

I would appreciate it if you will give this information to the readers of your paper, inasmuch as I have experienced some difficulty in securing a sufficient number of enumerators at the compensation first agreed upon by the Department. I will state, however, that my force is about organized and I will be ready to start to work promptly on the second day of January.

Thanking you for the assistance you have given me in this work, I am,
Yours truly,

An Albany Citizen Tells of His Experience.

You have a right to doubt statements of people living far away but can you doubt Albany endorsement? Read it:
J. A. Dillehay, retired grocer, 1115 Fourth avenue, Albany, says: "My back was so sore and lame I had to walk in a stooped position as it was awfully painful for me to straighten. I couldn't rest comfortably and my strength and vigor were becoming considerably reduced. I could get nothing to relieve the agony in my back although I tried many remedies faithfully. I finally heard of Doan's Kidney Pills and began using them. The effect was magical. In six weeks every symptom of my complaint had left me and my back was strong and well. I could go about my work with my usual health and strength and I have recommended Doan's occasional-ly since."

Above statement given February 28, 1908, and on February 27, 1918, Mr. Dillehay said: "Since I recommended Doan's Kidney Pills I have used them several times. They have always helped me when my kidneys acted disorderly and I am glad to confirm the statement made in 1908." 60c. at all dealers. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.—Advertisement.

The Price of Pork Chops and Bacon

Here are reasons why the fine, fresh pork tenderloins and pork chops, or savory ham, or crinkly bacon, which you enjoy for breakfast, cost much more per pound than the market quotation on live hogs which you read in the newspaper:

An average hog weighs 220 pounds.

Of this, only 70 per cent (154 pounds) is meat and lard.

So, when we pay 15¢ a pound for live hogs, we are really paying more than 21¢ a pound for the meat which we will get from these animals, even after taking into account the value of the by-products.

But people show a preference for only one-third of the whole—the pork chops, fancy bacon, and choice cuts from juicy hams.

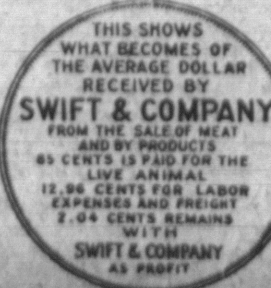

This means that when we are selling Premium bacon at 43½¢ per pound wholesale and Premium hams at 30¢, there are other parts for which we get as low as 6¢ or 8¢ per pound. The net result is an average profit to us of less than 1¢ a pound.

The choice cuts are higher because of a demand for them.

Another thing: Only 35 pounds of the entire hog—or about 1/6 th—is usually marketed at once. The rest must be pickled, cured, or smoked. This takes months, and adds to the costs which must be met.

"This is no night to stay home"

What if it does rain! What's that to you?
The motion picture theatre is open.

ALL the difference between the sullen drip from the eaves and the flutter of leaves in a sunny patio beyond Seville.

All the difference between the monotony of a dull book and the lively creak of saddle-leather between your knees.

All the difference between seven o'clock this bleak evening and a hot noon ten years ago, when palm fronds rustled in the soft trade-wind.

All the difference between Number 7 Maple Street and the sail-shaded deck of an island schooner creaming through the blue of the seas of the South.

How far away? How near is the nearest of the better theatres, with the relaxation of its sociable chairs, its genial warmth and happy swing of music?

Paramount Arcraft Pictures are there. That is why it is a better theatre.

Your kind of people, who know life and treasure romance, made Paramount Arcraft Pictures possible—and Paramount Arcraft Pictures made that better theatre possible.

CLASSES IN HOME HYGIENE—THE PUBLIC HEALTH NURSE
Answers to Questions Frequently Asked the Nursing Department.

1. What does a public health nurse mean to a community?

It means having a resident nurse to care for the sick in their own homes; it means physical inspection of school children and practical talks in school and at home on personal and domestic hygiene; it means the establishment of classes for instruction in Home Hygiene and Care of the Sick, it means the improving of bad housing conditions; it means healthier and happier babies; it means the prevention of the spread of tuberculosis, typhoid fever and other contagious diseases; and it means that epidemics will become less possible in the future.

2. What is the difference between the community nurse, public health nurse and the visiting nurse?

There is no difference. The American Red Cross Public Health Nurse assigned to a Chapter is a "Public Health Community Visiting Nurse."

3. What is the difference between the Red Cross Nurse instructing the course in Home Hygiene and Home Care of the Sick, and the Red Cross Public Health Nurse? They must both meet the following requirements:

(a) Enrolled in the Red Cross, or eligible for enrollment.

(b) Acceptable to the Division office for appointment. They must both meet the Red Cross requirements for their particular work and be in every way acceptable to the office for this work.

(c) Acceptable to the Chapter for appointment. Besides meeting Red Cross requirements, the worker, whether she is Instructor or Public Health Nurse, must be acceptable to the community where she is working. In addition to the above requirements, which both workers must meet, the Public Health nurse must have had a special course or special experience in Public Health Nursing. This is the only real difference.

4. May a Public Health Nurse teach classes in Home Hygiene and Care of the Sick?

A Public Health Nurse may be an instructor as well as the Public Health Community Visiting Nurse, when she has time to conduct this work and where it does not interfere with her duties as a Public Health Nurse.

5. After the necessary publicity has been carried out informing the women of the community in regard to the Red Cross Courses in Home Hygiene, what is the next step?

Correspond with the Division Office in regard to appointment of instructor and enroll students for these classes.

6. Where will a Chapter obtain such a nurse instructor?

The committee should write to the Director, Bureau of Class Instruction, Nursing Department, Gulf Division, Washington Artillery Hall, New Orleans, La.

TARRANT-SAUNDERS

At high noon Monday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Saunders, Miss Mary Grace Saunders was quietly married to Mr. Paul R. Tarrant of Birmingham.

The ceremony beautiful in its simplicity was impressively performed by Rev. T. C. Mundy, of St. John's Episcopal church.

Because of the serious illness of the bride's father, only members of the immediate family were present. Promptly at twelve o'clock the Reverend Mundy took his place in the center of the living room. The groom entered with his brother, Felix Tarrant, followed by Miss Caldwell and Mr. John Snodgrass as attendants. Then came the bride on the arm of her brother, Mr. Charles B. Saunders who gave her in marriage. She wore a becoming coat suit of Navy blue with the matching accessories, and carried an arm bouquet of American Beauty roses.

The bride was reared in Albany and one of its loveliest girls. For three years she has been a teacher in the schools of the Birmingham District. The groom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Tarrant of Birmingham, and is connected with the Norton Drug Company of that city.

ten days stay in Florida.

Out of town members of the family who were present, were Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Saunders from Birmingham, Miss Blanche Saunders of Louisville, Ky., Mr. John Snodgrass of North Carolina, Mr. Felix Tarrant of Birmingham.

W. C. T. U.
The W. C. T. U. will meet Friday at three o'clock with Mrs. J. W. Crow on Fourth avenue.

Mrs. W. A. Curry left for Memphis this morning. She came to the Twin cities to join Mr. Curry, when they celebrated their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary in a quiet way with just a friend or two, with whose lives had been intimately connected during their residence in Albany.

Misses Godbey and Anderson, both experienced nurses, are busy at the Central town school, weighing children, according to a scale used by the most learned and experienced Health experts. A number of children have been found not quite up to weight. This system is calling attention to the student as to his own needs, then his own family physician will prescribe, since he is wholly in sympathy with the movement. Alabama is determined to have a rugged citizenship and is beginning with the youth of this generation, to impress the need of a strong body.

Mrs. W. E. Todd and daughter, Frances, are expecting to spend Xmas in New York. To witness a grand production of Lohengrin, is to be one of the expectations realized.

H. B. LUNCHEON CLUB

MRS. C. V. DUPONT HOSTESS
Mrs. C. V. Dupont will be hostess to the H. B. Luncheon club Wednesday at 11:30 a. m.

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Dougherty will leave Wednesday for New Orleans, after a visit to their sister, Mrs. Robert Daniell.

Mrs. Genevieve Taylor and Miss Ruby Hale, of Russellville, who have been the guests of the former's brother, C. L. Goings, of Decatur, have returned to their home.

Words and Music.

The value of words is going up, at least in Rouen. There the courts have decided that the artistic value of the words and music of a poem are equal. At present in the United States and Canada the writer of the words of a song gets only a pittance of the royalties or a small sum outright at the start. In England, many of the most popular ballads have brought their writers no more than two or three guineas, while the composer goes on cashing his royalty checks for years. What measure publishers apply to the two arts thus combined to make words so much less valuable than music is rather hard to understand. Verse writers might well send a little gold medal to the just-minded citizens of Rouen who have ruled it a false one.

American Flags Wave in Budapest

NEW ORLEANS, La., Dec. 9.—How the enemy has adopted the American flag was made known here today in a dispatch from Budapest to the headquarters in New Orleans of the Gulf Division of the American Red Cross.

From outward appearances, according to the dispatch, the American flag is the official emblem of Budapest, although Hungary is still an enemy at war with the United States, and will remain so until the treaty is signed. It is the most popular flag in the city and is respected by the "Reds," the "Whites" and the Romanians. It is the protecting emblem that waves from the city vehicles, the fire engines and the automobiles.

Soon after their arrival in Budapest, the Red Cross men were requested by old and young alike for American flags.

"If we have them, no one will take our horses," the petitioners said. "So from each horse's head there flies now a tiny 'Old Glory'."

Bequeathed $10,000 by a Boyhood Chum Whose Life he Saved

(International News Service.)
DETROIT, Mich., Dec. 9.—Milton W. Coykendall, an iron moulder of this city, has been informed by a letter from New York attorneys that a former boyhood chum whom he had rescued from drowning more than twenty years ago had died and had bequeathed him $10,000. Coykendall, who is thirty years old and married, passed his early youth at Capac, Mich., as did his chum Jack Dunn. The two at that time were inseparable companions, went to school together, played, fought and went swimming together. It was during one of these trips that Dunn nearly lost his life. Caught in a treacherous undercurrent, he was fast losing his strength when Coykendall, a strong swimmer, saved him.

Shortly after this the boys left the home town, going different ways. Dunn's wanderings took him to New York, where he became a successful broker. Coykendall, during a trip to New York several years ago, met his boyhood friend, who declared he would never forget the old days, especially the day his life was saved. The letter from the New York attorneys proved that Dunn had not forgotten. Coykendall left for New York to claim the $10,000.

GUS HILL'S MINSTRELS
MASONIC THEATRE

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 12

To Manager Gus Hill is due the honor of upstaging conventions in the theatrical firmament, as attested by the wonderful success registered by his latest enterprise, Gus Hill's big minstrels, which is to be the next attraction at the Masonic theatre Friday, Dec. 12 with the usual matinee. No minstrel offering of recent years can boast of more up-to-date features than this avalanche of burnt-cork tomfoolery and laughter. Critics all over the country have pronounced it the last word in Minstrelsy, combining so many unusual novelties, imitable settings, hits, jokes, singers, dancers, vaudeville headliners and exponents of simon-pure Ethiopian wit and humor. Every angle of Minstrelsy has been treated with a unique twist, resulting in a production bristling with a brightness and freshness seldom found in a single stage production. Heading a company of fifty all-white glee destroyers and purveyors of mirth and merriment, is George Wilson, a black-face comedian of acknowledged skill. Then will be found Jimmy Wall, Jack Kennedy, Lee Edmonds, William Hallett, Herbert Willison, Marty Fletcher, Bob Weston, Max Maxen, Ed Denys, Carl Graves, James Brady, John Buckley, Eddie Gallagher, Jigger Marr, Jack Hayes, Three Musical Cates, Mark with Bros., and three score other Singers, Dancers and Comedians.

If merit has any reward this show is bound to be the sensation as well as the toast of the town. Watch for the street parade. It will be worth your while.

Unusual Methods Used.

With the end of the war have come many revelations of the unusual methods used by the Germans to spread their harmful propaganda in the countries arrayed against the central powers, and of the clever work which often frustrated their well-laid plans. In one case, mentioned in Popular Mechanics Magazine, what appeared to be an old and worn copy of the works of Homer proved to be a volume of attacks on British rule in India. Only the first few pages of the book were printed with the words of the ancient poet. The remainder, though in Greek type like the beginning, was filled with the diatribe. The volume was addressed to an educated Hindu capable of translating the Greek into an Indian dialect.

Enormous Gas Waste.

Poor construction of pipe lines is the cause assigned for the loss in one year of natural gas valued at $9,000,000 in the states of Missouri and Kansas alone.

Costly Parking Space.

Tired of being taken into court by traffic policemen, because at the time he goes to business his car has to be parked in the street, as day storage is at a premium and access to a public garage at those hours is difficult, Philip Rosenbach, art connoisseur of Philadelphia, has just paid $10,000 for a stable property which he will convert into a private garage for himself. It is near his place of business.

Babies More Plentiful Than Houses.

"It is easier to find a baby than a house in Sydney now," reports the Bulletin of that Australian city, continuing thusly: "Writer knows a young bride who went to live with her mother pending the discovery of a suitable residence. She has two infants now and is still living with her mother."

PERTINENT TALKS BY PERTINENT PEOPLE

By MARGARET MacGREGOR, M. A. ing many women were at home flirt-
(Written for the International News- ing, and, if not technically faithless, Service.) at least not conspicuously faithless.

LONDON, Dec. 9.—The aftermath of war seems likely to destroy another beautiful illusion, men's cherished belief in the inherent faithfulness of women, and to prove Byron nearer the truth when he said: "Every woman is at her wits' end."

The most striking characteristic of the 2,000 divorce cases that are now being disposed of in our courts is the fact that the petitioners are chiefly women. Freedom for women has meant apparently faithlessness; faithlessness, too, when one might have expected the lightest love to have inspired loyalty.

While their men were away fighting, and, if not technically faithless, at least not conspicuously faithless. Kissing, jazzing and masques are not the diversions of loyal wives. It is a farce to suggest that the prevailing laxity of women's responding to a temporary divorce court proceedings are unaccompanied by laxity of morals, however speciously it may be argued by eloquent counsel.

The truth is that now that women can avoid their primitive vocation of child-bearing and are able to indulge in amours with the same immunity as men, the great bulwark of their morality, fear of consequences, is gone; for millions of women the war removed the other bulwark, lack of opportunity, and, with both these defenses gone the morality itself seems to have disappeared.

Newadays children are not regarded as the natural consequence of marriage—young women even stipulate beforehand that they shall not be asked to have any, and far from settling down marriage means a "better time," more freedom, more independence, more money, and a safe covering for further love affairs.

It is thus shamelessly exploited by countless women for their own selfish ends, and men are at their mercy.

Women are particularly clever at obeying the eleventh commandment, and a woman whose reputation is a scandal may emerge from the Divorce Court with a halo of picture-paper romance and in a position to live her "own life" at her injured husband's expense.

If marriage ceases to be the foundation of the family and becomes a career of self-indulgence for women, it is doomed, and home life, one of the secrets of England's strength, will be lost.

The provident and wise regulation of the family in accordance with the means of the parents and the physical strength of the mother is one thing, the selfish evasion of motherhood is quite another, and it is the latter that is threatening England.

Faithfulness may be no more an inherent quality of women than of men, but faithless women are a greater danger to the race.

Faithlessness in women is born not so much of passion, as in men, but of vanity, love of excitement, and lack of their natural occupation.

It is the old story of "Satan finding mischief."

Father's Punishment.

"Get after hours again, eh?" said the father.

"Only ten minutes," replied the son.

"Well, go at once to your room, sir, lock yourself in, and bring me the key. This thoughtlessness must be checked."—London Tit-Bits.
